Education = Options!

The Urban Assembly School for the Performing Arts (UASPA) is a college-preparatory performing arts high school. We are a non-audition, small school with a family atmosphere located near the A, B, C, D, and 1 trains. Our rigorous four-year academic sequence, along with our grade counselors, prepare students for their journey to college. 100% of our graduates are accepted into college.

HIGHLIGHTS

- ✓ At UASPA, we believe that Education Equals Options!!
- ✓ UASPA is a college-preparatory, performing arts high school located in the heart of Harlem. We are located in a culturally rich part of Manhattan. (near A, B, C, D & 1 trains)
- ✓ We are a small school that is like a family. We provide students with the academic and the social/emotional support that they need to achieve and exceed their goals.
- ✓ We are a non-auditioning performing arts school because we believe that all students should have access to rigorous academic and artistic study no matter what their previous experience.
- ✓ 100% of our graduates are accepted into college and earn close to 1 million dollars in scholarships.
- ✓ 4 year academic sequence that prepares student for their post-secondary choice.
- ✓ At UASPA, student have the opportunity to declare a major in Dance, Vocal, or Theater.
- ✓ Dual Enrollment Classes in conjunction with SUNY—earn college credits while in High School.
- ✓ AP Courses: AP Literature, AP Language, AP US History, AP Psychology, AP Statistics.
- ✓ We have a full time 12th Grade Counselor dedicated to making sure our students are accepted with financial aid into the right college.
- ✓ We have a long list of partners that help bring our mission to life such as Urban Assembly, College Bound Initiative, EPIC Theater Ensemble, Martha Graham Dance Company and Exploring the Arts, just to name a few...
